

On February 24, the day on which one year ago Russia launched a full-scale invasion of Ukraine, the Ukrainian Free University will hold a panel discussion with distinguished security policy experts entitled:

One Year Later: Analyzing the Current Situation and Potential Outcomes of Russia's Full-Scale Invasion of Ukraine

Panelists:

Dr. Benedikt Franke, Vice Chairman and CEO of the Munich Security Conference.

Eric Nelson, Deputy Director of the Marshall European Center for Security Studies in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, an experienced American diplomat (1990-2022), US Ambassador to Bosnia and Herzegovina in 2019-2022.

Pavlo Klimkin (online), member of the supervisory board of the Ukrainian Future Institute and the „Come Back Alive“ Foundation, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine in 2014-2019.

Moderator:

Roland Freudenstein, Vice President and Head of GLOBSEC Brussels, previously Policy Director of the Wilfried Martens Centre for European Studies.

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to hear an inside analysis on the Russian war against Ukraine, which was the key focus of the Munich Security Conference this year.

We invite you on February 24, 2023 at 19:00 to the Ukrainian Free University at Am Münchner Tor 1, 80805 München, 5th floor.

The discussion will be held in English.

DISCUSSION
ONE YEAR OF RUSSIA'S WAR IN UKRAINE

DATE 24 February, 2022
TIME 19:00 PM
PLACE UFU, Am Münchner Tor 1

ROLAND FREUDENSTEIN
Vice President and Head of GLOBSEC Brussels
MODERATOR

DR. BENEDIKT FRANKE
Vice-Chairman and CEO of the Munich Security Conference (MSC)

ERIC NELSON
Associate Director of the George C. Marshall Center in Garmisch-Partenkirchen

PAVLO KLIMKIN
Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine 2014-2019 (online)